Summer 2015

Transfer to the top of Masada

Israel is a surprising land of contrasts. It is approximately the size of New Jersey and goes from below sea level at the Dead Sea to the heights of Masada. Floating in the Dead Sea was an experience I will never forget. Below, I have highlighted some of the sights that are not to be missed on your visit to this amazing land. I hope to put a group together in 2016 to experience Israel.

Bethlehem has a Muslim majority, but is also home to one of the largest Palestinian Christian communities.. Originally, Bethlehem was a lodging point for Jewish pilgrims to Jerusalem during the three holiest days of the Jewish year. Bethlehem's chief economic sector is tourism which peaks during the Christmas season when Christians make pilgrimage to the Church of the Nativity, as they have done for almost two millennia.

Masada is an ancient fortification in the Southern District of Israel situated on top of an isolated rock plateau on the eastern edge of the Judean Desert, overlooking the Dead Sea. Herod the Great built palaces for himself on the mountain and fortified Masada between 37 and 31 BCE. According to Josephus, the Siege of Masada by troops of the Roman Empire towards the end of the First Jewish-Roman War ended in the mass suicide of the 960 Sicarii rebels and their families hiding there.

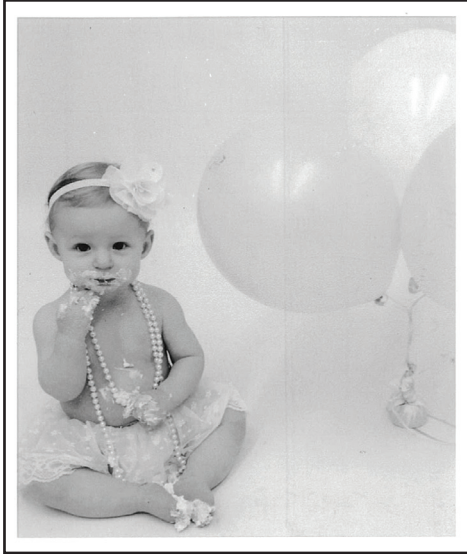

Yad Vashem is Israel's official memorial to the victims of the Holocaust, established in 1953. Yad Vashem is located on the western slope of Mount Herzl on the Mount of Remembrance in Jerusalem. The memorial consists of a complex containing the Holocaust History Museum, memorial sites such as the Children's Memorial and the Hall of Remembrance. When Yad Vashem came into being, a core goal of its founding visionaries was to recognize gentiles who, at personal risk, and without a financial or evangelistic motive, chose to save their Jewish brethren from the ongoing genocide during the Holocaust. The nations are honored in a section of Yad Vashem known as the Garden of the Righteous Among the Nations. After the Western Wall, Yad Vashem is the second most-visited Israeli tourist site.

Nancy's Notes

I've just returned from escorting a Trans-Atlantic group on Celebrity's Eclipse. The ship is absolutely beautiful; wonderful staff and food. The weather could have been a bit better crossing the Atlantic as it felt like we had our own cloud that followed us but even with the rain, seas were relatively calm and spirits were not dampened. Our biggest issue was getting everyone and everything to Newark Liberty. I remind and check with everyone that they have their passports but it now looks like I also have to remind people not to leave their luggage in their living room. Eventually, it all worked out but that was a first for me. The staff at the United Airlines Group Check-in were most helpful and I appreciated everything they did to resolve the situation. Look at our Groups page as there will be three Celebrity groups that we will be doing next year.

Right before the cruise we celebrated my beautiful granddaughter's first birthday. It's so exciting to see them grow and start to walk and talk. Happy Birthday Claire!!

Please let me know if you would be interested in joining us on a trip to Israel for Spring of 2016. Check with us in about a month and I will let you know the response and interest.

Enjoy Summer!

Regards,

Nancy

Letters to Juliet

Ocean County's own Vanessa Redgrave

Having seen the movie 'Letters to Juliet' will make you appreciate the letter that follows:

Dear Nancy,

I wanted to thank you for all your help in making my flights from Philadelphia to Abilene over the past couple of years. I know you were interested in my story so here goes...

In 2012 I located my 'first love'. Back in 1956, I fell in love with Ken, he was from Ft. Worth Texas and stationed in Holgate while in the U.S. Coast Guard. I was 14 and he was 17 and we met at the Manahawkin Skating Rink (now the Manahawkin Flea Market). We dated, fell in love, got engaged and ran away to get married but as it happened, I was forced to come home and Ken was sent overseas. After two years apart, I grew up and wanted to go to nursing school and not get married so I sent him a "Dear John" letter. He tried and tried to change my mind and that was 1959. I didn't and for years felt guilty about sending the letter.

Years had gone by every time I heard George Strait sing 'Does Ft. Worth Ever Cross Your Mind?', I would wonder what ever became of Ken.

It was during the summer of 2012 I decided to begin my search. I started checking Texas information because Texans always go back to Texas. It's like their own country. They are so proud of being a Texan. After many 411 calls to Texas, I located his sister in law who told me where I could find him. One more 411 call and I found him again; 53 years from the time we last spoke. We are both single now and it was like no time had passed from when we were teenagers. I now visit him a couple times a year and we talk daily. We are the best of friend again.

Poor health prevents him from coming to New Jersey and visiting me. How I would love to show him Bends Coast Guard Station in Holgate, where he was stationed in 1956, when we first met or Cape May Coast Guard Station where he trained. ...and how Manahawkin has changed. Memories for sure.

Sincerely,

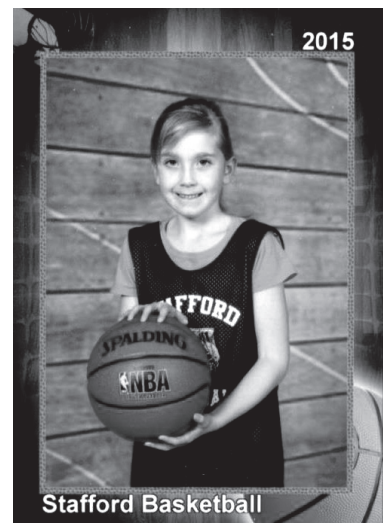

Lucille Bales Wickward (Lucille's Country Kitchen)

winter season.

My husband and I were in London in January attending a conference at the Imperial War Museum where I presented a paper on Post-war Jewish refugee children and how their care was influenced by the theories of Janusz Korczak and Anna Freud. After the three-day conference we moved to a beautiful hotel, Millennium Bailey's—formerly a Victorian townhouse—where we stayed in a lovely spacious room and were closer to the Underground. We would not have known about this hotel if we had not gone to Hometown Travel. Nancy Schott is incredibly savvy about what hotels are quality and have reasonable rates as well as about what there is to see and do. She made our travel easy, arranging our transfers from airport to hotel and also arranging for transport within the airport, so I did not have to walk great distances to and from the gates. We had a wonderful time in London. We wouldn't go on another trip without Hometown Travel; Nancy is so knowledgeable and easy to get along with. Kudos to Hometown Travel and Nancy Schott.

Thanks Home Town Travel!

With our fiftieth wedding anniversary fast approaching, we discussed the many ways to celebrate. One theme kept jumping to the head of the line—a family vacation. So, off we went to our friends at Home Town Travel, Nancy and Tara.

After investigating rentals, all-inclusive family resorts, and cruises, we decided on a cruise from either New York or New Jersey (no air fares). We looked at what the various lines operating out of this area offered and finally zeroed in on Royal Caribbean's Quantum of the Sea. This is the newest of Royal Caribbean's "super ships" and fits the bill of an all-inclusive family resort.

We sailed from Bayonne on Easter morning for a week of family fun. There were Bumper Cars, Roller Skating, Rock Climbing, and the arm that lifted us up and over the ocean. (Grandma and Grandpa didn't climb the rock wall.) There are so many activities for the kids and adults too numerous to list.

The shore excursions ranged from Disney World to Royal Caribbean's private island which turned out to be paradise. Our son reserved a cabana for us so that we would have shade. The kids (ours and theirs) enjoyed hours of snorkeling and just floating on the turquoise sea.

Nancy made all the arrangements getting staterooms near each other as well as our dining reservations making sure we were always going to sit at a table for 12 in each of the dining venues. The shows were fabulous and innovative. The play was Mama Mia which sat well with our children—the Abba generation. We didn't have to do much other than register online prior to sailing. Nancy took care of everything.

At the end of April, the Quantum of the Sea will be making a trans-Atlantic sailing to China where this ship will be permanently housed. Not to worry, Royal Caribbean will be bringing another "super ship" to Cape Liberty, Bayonne.

Thank you, Home Town Travel, for your attention to our family and a very special anniversary. Be sure to check with Nancy and Tara when planning a family jaunt.

Our "once in a lifetime" trip was Epic!! I can not begin to thank you enough for walking us through the process and making it so special! My family came home with more memories than we could ever wished for... I think I took over 300 pictures (and attached a few), I wanted to capture every single moment!! I reflect on those pictures almost daily and cant help but smile, knowing how special that time was. We met some of the most amazing people on the ship... the workers who touched our hearts and opened our minds... we left with emails to keep in touch! We bonded as a family and truly enjoyed the comforts that Norwegian had to offer. The Bahamas Islands did not disappoint... I write that and smile, remembering the locals we met and the gorgeous beaches we snorkeled... We really made ever moment count and finally surrendered to being on vacation! When our trip ended, we felt so grounded, rested and truly found a new appreciation for life... I suppose you could say the "travel bug" bit us! Our family can not wait til our next adventure... but will cherish this one for an eternity!

If you would like to receive this newsletter via email, please send us your email address.

Until we meet again (real soon)
Thank you!

Thank you,
Tiffany & Jason Green (and kids)

After being married for 51 years, I took a careful look at my wife one day and said: "Darling, 50 years ago we had a cheap apartment, a cheap car, slept on a sofa bed and watched a 10-inch black and white TV, but I got to sleep every night with a hot 22-year-old girl. Now I have a $500,000 home, a $45,000 car, nice big bed and plasma screen TV but I'm sleeping with a 72-year-old woman. It seems to me that you're not holding on your side of things."

My wife is a very reasonable woman. She told me to go out and find a hot 22-year-old girl, and she would make sure that I would once again be living in a cheap apartment, driving a cheap car, sleeping on a sofa bed and watching a 10-inch black and white TV.

Norwegian Cruise Line to Offer Weddings at Sea

Norwegian Cruise Line has announced it will begin offering legally recognized destination weddings at sea performed by the ship's captain beginning this month on Norwegian Breakaway and Norwegian Getaway, and on Norwegian Escape when it launches this fall.

Norwegian Cruise Line has announced it will begin offering legally recognized destination weddings at sea performed by the ship's captain beginning this month on Norwegian Breakaway and Norwegian Getaway, and on Norwegian Escape when it launches this fall.

Norwegian's "Wedding At Sea" package includes a bridal bouquet and matching boutonniere, champagne toast, wedding cake and more, plus an experienced wedding coordinator to assist couples during the planning process. On-site wedding coordinators will handle arrangements for the couple onboard the ship. The ceremony will be performed by the ship's Captain, with the couple's marriage license issued by the Bahamas.

In addition to weddings at sea, Norwegian also offers customizable destination wedding experiences in one of the line's ports of call. Couples can select a Harbor side Ceremony, performed on board while the ship is docked in select ports of call, or Destination Ceremony, performed on shore in select ports of call.

Ceremonies are available in a wide range of destinations -- including Norwegian's domestic embarkation ports, as well as destinations in Canada, Mexico, Europe, the Caribbean, and Bermuda.

All packages include an officiant or ship officer to perform the ceremony, on-site wedding coordinator, private ceremony location, ceremony vows, bouquet and matching boutonniere, prerecorded ceremony music, a bottle of sparkling wine, keepsake wedding certificate and wedding cake.

Norwegian will also offer legal same-sex ceremonies, available in destinations where same-sex marriages are recognized by local law, including Boston, Hawaii, Los Angeles, New York, Seattle, Vancouver, Tampa, Miami and Port Canaveral.

Additional enhancements and services available include spa and beauty treatments, flowers (including custom orders), professional photography and videography, transportation to and from the ship or wedding location, priority check-in, and a variety of wedding reception options, ranging from a cocktail reception with gourmet selections and open bar to a four-course sit-down luncheon with wine service.

For couples who wish to re-confirm their love while at sea, Norwegian will offer a "Vow Renewal" package with a private vow renewal ceremony performed by one of the ship's officers. The package includes ceremony music, a romantic single red rose, champagne toast, a celebration cake for two, a commemorative vow renewal certificate, an 8x10 professional portrait in an engraved frame, sparkling wine, canapés and chocolate-covered strawberries delivered to their stateroom the evening of the ceremony.

For honeymooners, Norwegian offers romantic dinners for two in the line's signature restaurants; couples spa treatments in Norwegian's Mandara Spas; and shore excursions.

For more details on weddings with Norwegian Cruise Lines, make an appointment to discuss your special day and what we can do for you and your wedding group.

Jim and Shirley Schiele, winners of the MSC Caribbean cruise along with Bill Clanton, Jr. of WBNJ.

We want to thank you again for making the arrangements for our dream vacation in Jamaica in February 2015. Your recommendation of the all-inclusive Couples Negril Resort was excellent, and we really enjoyed our stay. We admittedly didn't avail ourselves of the many fun & interesting activities they offered, but for a very good reason—the beach area was so beautiful that we chose to just relax there with a good book and occasional swim each day! There are a variety of restaurants at the resort, and we particularly enjoyed the Otaheite (fine dining) and most especially Lychee (Asian cuisine), our favorite of the trip. It was a worry-free, stress-free vacation during which we met so many nice people from the states as well as international guests, culminating in a very memorable week together.

Al & Carol Sicheri

When we married in 1989, Nancy arranged for our two-week honeymoon in Hawaii. That trip was perfect. We visited Maui, Kauai, Hawaii and Oahu. As the years passed, we built our law office in Manahawkin and life, children and work took over, it was our dream to travel to Italy someday.

Nancy arranged our wonderful Italian vacation to Rome, Florence, Venice and Milan, to celebrate our 25th wedding anniversary. Each hotel was nicer than the next and she arranged for us to have champagne waiting for us at our hotels. We enjoyed the sights, the food, the wine and all the shopping Italy had to offer. It really was a dream come true.

Our wedding was many years ago. The celebration continues to this day.
