The freshest flavors of spring – on the plate and in the glass – are showcased at Taste of EPCOT International Flower & Garden Festival March 3 through July 5, 2021.

This Foodie Guide lists all the sweet and savory bites as well as refreshing sips at the over 20 festival-exclusive Outdoor Kitchens. The newest Outdoor Kitchens are the EPCOT Sunshine Griddle offering delicious brunch items, and EPCOT Farmers Feast, where a rotating seasonal menu will offer the finest local ingredients through the festival. And check out the new Orange Bird sipper – how is it possible he is even more adorable this year?

Returning is the Garden Graze, a fun food stroll highlighting five delicious offerings at the festival – all listed in the Festival Passport. Upon their Garden Graze purchase, Guests will receive a stamp for your Festival Passport. Once they've collected all five stamps, they can bring their Festival Passport to Pineapple Promenade Outdoor Kitchen to receive a complimentary prize exclusive to the festival. Guests can complete the Garden Graze at their leisure, and they can even bring back your stamped Festival Passport to EPCOT at any time during the festival to complete your Garden Graze.

Also new for this year's festival are some tasty musical morsels for Guests' ears! Each weekend, they can enjoy a series of concerts featuring local bands from Orlando, also known as the "City Beautiful." Friday through Monday evenings, these "City Beautiful" bands will take the stage at America Gardens Theatre to perform popular songs of yesterday and today.

In this small Central American country visitors will find gorgeous natural scenery; a huge network of national parks and wildlife sanctuaries brimming with exotic species – plus a very generous sprinkling of Mayan sites! Best of all, they will meet our warmhearted people – representing a mixture of nationalities that range from Mestizo and Creole to Garifuna and Maya.

When to visit Reykjavík

The best time to visit Reykjavík depends on the Icelandic experience you are looking for. While this small-yet-perfectly-formed city offers an excellent holiday at any time of year, the seasons can affect the activities on offer.

Peak summertime, from June through to August, is the most popular time to visit, thanks to the warmer weather and days of up to 21 hours of sunlight – ideal for a range of outdoors pursuits. There's also a top selection of festivals that take place in the city during the summer, such as the Secret Solstice, Reykjavík Jazz Festival and Reykjavík Gay Pride.

From September to October, temperatures begin to drop and the crowds lessen. Cultural events like Reykjavík Fringe Festival and the International Film Festival take place during the autumn and your chances of seeing the Northern Lights begin to increase.

While the winter months can bring snow, chilly climates and long nights, events such as the Winter Lights Festival and a high chance of seeing the magical Aurora will make a trip at this time of year memorable.

Finally, springtime sees the Icelandic countryside begin to bloom and the tours that may have been closed due to bad weather begin to operate again. The Reykjavík Blues and Reykjavík Arts Festival both take place at this time of year – there's always something to keep visitors entertained in this cosmopolitan city.

The Blue Lagoon

Some say that no trip to Iceland is truly complete without a dip in the healing waters of a geothermal hot spring. Just a 30-minute drive from Reykjavík, the world famous Blue Lagoon doubles up as a spa, consisting of warm, mineral-rich seawater that reportedly does wonders for the skin. Contrary to popular belief, the Blue Lagoon is no natural phenomenon but formed back in the 1970s from the excess water of a power plant, designed to drill for steam and hot water. However, the water is clean, natural and as it is constantly streaming into the lagoon, completely replenished every 48 hours.

The tower of Hallgrímskirkja

The Lutheran parish church Hallgrímskirkja is one of the most iconic landmarks of Reykjavík – its unique spire can be spotted from almost anywhere in the city. Designed by the late Guðjón Samúelsson in 1937, who found inspiration in the fascinating shapes created by molten lava as it cooled into basalt rock, this visual spectacular is also the largest church in Iceland at 74.5m high. Visitors can take an elevator up into the spire to admire the views, but to reach the highest platform, you need to climb the last 30 steps of so.

APPLE FRITTERS

Ingredients

For the fritters: • 1 1/2 cups all purpose flour • 1/4 cup sugar • 2 teaspoons baking powder • 1/2 teaspoon salt • 1 1/2 teaspoons cinnamon • 1/3 cup milk • 2 eggs • 3 tablespoons applesauce • 2 large Granny Smith or Honeycrisp apples peeled, cored and diced • canola oil for frying

For the glaze: • 2 cups powdered sugar • 1/4 cup milk • 1/2 teaspoon vanilla

DIRECTIONS

1. Whisk flour, sugar, baking powder, salt and cinnamon in medium bowl. Make a well in the center and add milk, eggs and applesauce. Stir just to combine. Fold in apples.
2. Heat in 1 1/2" oil in skillet, dutch oven or deep fryer to 375 degrees. Drop 1/4 cup batter for fritter into hot oil, spreading as you drop. Cook each side until golden brown; about 2 minutes on each side.
3. Whisk together 1/4 cup milk, powdered sugar and vanilla. Drop fritter into glaze making sure each side is coated. Place on a wire rack to air dry and drip. Makes about 10 fritters. Preparation time: 20 minutes

ICELAND GETAWAY – THE LAND OF FIRE AND ICE

February 1ST - 6TH, 2022

A bucket list trip. Fly from Newark on a flight that is about the same amount of time as Las Vegas. Because of the jet stream, the weather about that time averages above 32 degrees with sunrise about 10 a.m. and sunset is 5:30 p.m. Upon arrival we will have breakfast at the Viking World Museum before heading to the warm, thermal waters of the Blue Lagoon. Cover yourself with the healing mud and leave looking years younger. The not to be missed, full day, Grand Circle Tour will have you visit magnificent waterfalls and geysers along with a stop at Thingvellir National Park, Iceland's Grand Canyon and the home of the oldest Parliament building in Europe. We will also try to see the Northern Lights (never guaranteed) and if nothing is spotted the first time, we will try again the next night. One additional day for your own pursuits where you can visit the black sand beaches of the south shore or visit the interior of a glacier (the only one in the world); amazing! Our package includes round trip air on Icelandic Air from Newark, four nights hotel accommodations at the FossHotel Reykjavik with taxes and government fees, four Iceland breakfasts at the hotel plus one continental breakfast on arrival, stable visit, and greenhouse soup lunch while on Golden Circle tour, Blue Lagoon entrance and Northern Lights tour. Rate: $1,699.00 per person double. A limited number of singles are available at an upcharge of $350.00. Insurance is recommended and a passport is required. Price is based on a minimum of 20 passengers.
