travelers flying in premium cabins on United's long-haul international and premium transcontinental routes will be the first to experience the airline's new, co-branded amenity kits designed exclusively for the airline by global travel lifestyle brand Away. Inspired by Away's iconic suitcases and versatile accessories, United will offer three versions of the amenity kits, each with custom travel essentials and Sunday Riley's United-exclusive range of clean, cruelty-free skincare products. The collaboration signifies the first time Away, the global travel lifestyle brand, has partnered with a commercial airline.

ABOARD CELEBRITY CRUISES' SUMMIT TO BERMUDA—JUNE 2022

Me (Mary Ann), and my two friends (Judy & Maureen) were anxiously awaiting getting away after a 2 year virus hiatus. We were not disappointed as we boarded the beautiful Celebrity Summit.

Everyone on board treated us as queens as they were very attentive and extremely friendly. Of course getting out of the kitchen and waited on by a staff that catered to our every need was just what the doctor ordered.

PS. Foods at all restaurants were delicious and plentiful.

JetBlue Airways Reaches to Deal to Buy Spirit Airlines

JetBlue Airways has reached a deal to buy ultra-low-cost carrier Spirit Airlines, bringing an end to a months-long bidding war with Frontier, and creating a “national low-fare challenger to the dominant big four airlines.”

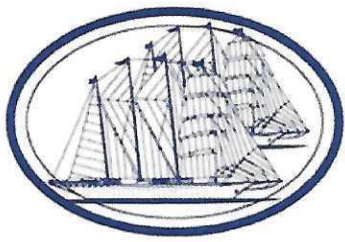

JetBlue announced the deal on Thursday morning, writing that it will acquire Spirit for $33.50 per share in cash, including a pre-payment of $2.50 per share in cash payable upon Spirit shareholders’ approval of the deal. When the deal is finalized, the combined carrier will be the fifth-largest airline in the U.S.

“We are excited to deliver this compelling combination that turbocharges our strategic growth, enabling JetBlue to bring our unique blend of low fares and exceptional service to more customers, on more routes,” said Robin Hayes, chief executive officer, JetBlue.

JetBlue’s announcement came just a few hours after talks between Spirit and Frontier ended. Spirit reportedly could not secure shareholder approval for its deal to buy Frontier despite the efforts from its executive board, including delaying the vote four different times.

The deal jump-starts JetBlue’s growth plans, adding more than 1,700 daily flights to more than 125 destinations in 30 countries. It also helps JetBlue boost its relevance in some key markets, including Ft. Lauderdale, Orlando, San Juan, and Los Angeles, along with an increased presence in the hubs of those “big four airlines,” including Las Vegas, Dallas, Houston, Chicago, Detroit, and Miami. Can’t wait to see how this affects us locally with Atlantic City.

JetBlue also said that the all-Airbus combined fleet will include new A220s and A320neos.

Unique Sailing Adventures

GREEK MARINATED LAMB CHOPS

Unfortunately, you can't spend every single night on board a classic sailing ship, enjoying a 5-star meal prepared for you by an expert chef. But you can cook delicious, Greek marinated lamb chops, and enjoy a taste of fine dining at home while you await your next sailing adventure! Treat your tastebuds to the iconic flavors of the Mediterranean.

INGREDIENTS

- 2 racks lamb chops
- ½ cup olive oil
- ¼ cup lemon juice
- 2 tsp dried oregano
- 2 tbsp fresh chopped parsley
- 8 cloves garlic, finely chopped
- 1 tbsp salt
- 1 tsp black pepper

Mix all ingredients, excluding lamb chops, together in a small bowl to create marinade.

Place lamb chops in a zip top bag and pour in the marinade. Remove the air and seal the bag. Marinate for at least two hours, flipping the bag over halfway through marinating.

Remove marinated lamb chops from the fridge and allow them to come to room temperature for about 30 minutes.

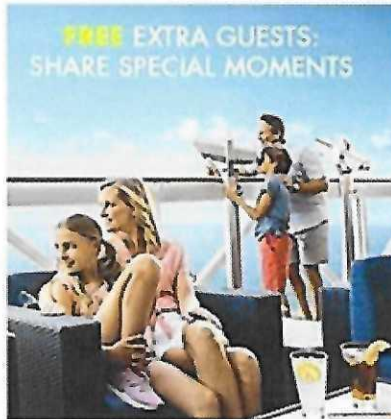

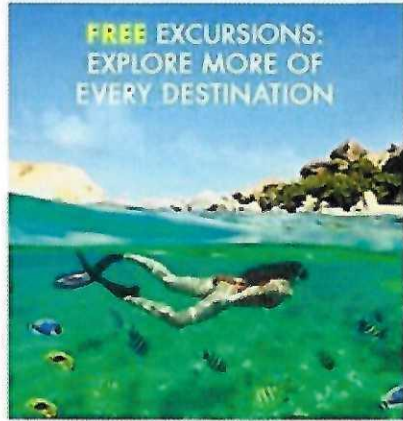

Heat grill to medium-high. Grill the lamb chops for about 4-6 minutes per side, until they reach your desired doneness. Transfer lamb chops to a platter and let them sit for a few minutes before serving.

Americans are eager to leave America behind. Finally, the U.S. no longer requires air passengers returning to the States to show a negative COVID-19 viral test or documentation of recovery from the virus before they board their flight. This positive news coupled with a weakening pandemic has people calling their travel agents and packing their bags to once again enjoy a sojourn overseas.

According to a study of more than 40,000 spring 2022 flight itineraries by travel insurance and assistance company Allianz Partners, travel to Europe this summer will be up 600 percent over 2021 as more destinations reopen for business to meet a growing demand. And these travelers can afford it. The Washington Post recently reported that Americans have banked an estimated $2.4 trillion in extra savings from enforced idleness during the pandemic.

THERE'S NO BETTER VALUE AT SEA THAN NORWEGIAN'S FREE AT SEA

ALASKA

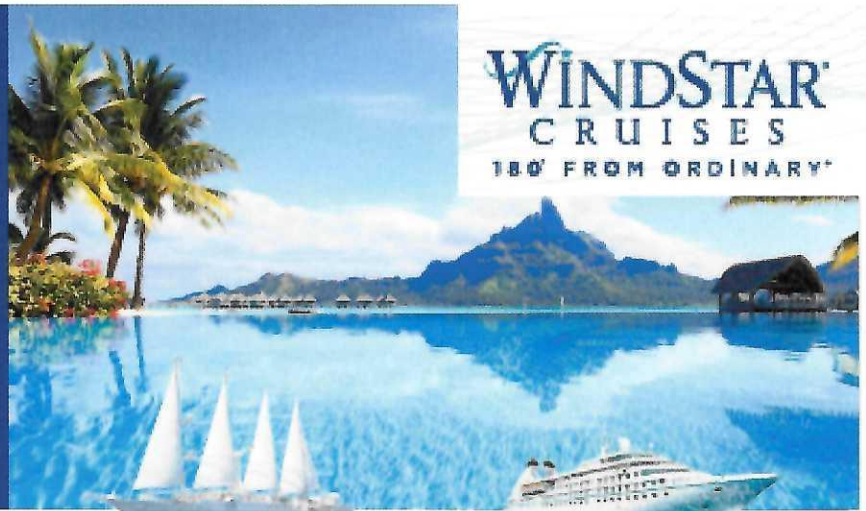

A big thank you to Nancy at Home Town Travel for helping Tom and I plan the trip of a lifetime. We did a 14 day land/sea cruise tour which was phenomenal. We think if you do a cruise only you are truly missing some of the most beautiful scenery in the United States. If Alaska is on your bucket list land/sea is the way to go.
