

Experience a Different Tomorrow in Europe With NCL

If you want to choose your next European holiday with your head as well as your heart, an NCL Cruise Tour ticks all the boxes as it includes a pre- or post-cruise stay in Europe's most desirable and exciting cities, plus the cruise of your dreams.

It's easy to find a Norwegian Cruise Line (NCL) holiday that's perfect for you and fits in with the rest of your travel plans. The excitement of visiting a new city nearly every day and the chance to immerse yourself in destinations during overnights and late stays in port mean you can fully experience Europe.

With a dozen NCL ships sailing in Europe in 2024 and 2025, it's easy to find a cruise that's perfect for you and your crew – and your holiday budget. Here's the lowdown on the contemporary fleet sailing in Europe plus a hot tip for picking up great European cruise fares with NCL.

Norwegian Prima and Norwegian Viva are the most recent additions to the fleet and an entirely new class of ship with an innovative, spacious design and hot new activities. Onboard you'll find all the things you love about NCL, plus next-level attractions like go-kart tracks and the fastest slides at sea. If you're planning a multigenerational getaway or love experiencing new things, Norwegian Viva and Norwegian Prima could be your perfect ship.

That said, the line's smaller vessels, like Norwegian Star and Norwegian Dawn, are also worth getting excited about if you're heading to Europe. Carrying just over 2,000 guests, these classic ships accommodate 1,000 fewer guests than Prima class and offer a more traditional cruise experience and can visit unique, hard-to-reach ports.

An NCL cruise holiday is a revolutionary experience if you've never experienced the joy of being able to go as you please on a ship. Having the freedom and flexibility to cruise your way, with no schedule to follow but your own, has got to be the ultimate holiday indulgence.

Onboard, there are no fixed dining times and no set dining tables, and most restaurants are included in your fare. Having the flexibility to eat with friends or family with no fuss makes every day a pleasure. Packing is easier too, with no fancy dress codes or formal nights.

If you're seeking relaxation first and foremost, there's plenty of time to enjoy a cocktail as you take in the view or socialize with fellow travelers who share your thoughtful curiosity about the world. Don't be surprised if you make new lifelong friends on your NCL Europe cruise.

Imagine the excitement of pulling back your curtains to see the whitewashed buildings of Santorini cascading down the cliffs opposite the ship or tucking into a delicious room service breakfast on your balcony, overlooking the ancient city of Rhodes in Greece as the city comes alive.

Whether you opt for a delicious introduction to the local food and wine scene in Rome, a drive through the Tuscan countryside or learning about local art and culture on a walking tour with an expert guide in Florence, you'll get an authentic introduction to your destination plus the freedom to discover your own path.

Experience historic ruins in Pompeii, art museums in Barcelona and charming villages in France as if you were a local while enjoying a premium customer service experience and the peace of mind that comes with knowing you're in expert hands whilst exploring onshore.

BEST. WEEKEND. EVER.

Malta: Where Festivals Come Alive!

Experience the vibrant spirit of Malta, where every day feels like a celebration! At the heart of Maltese culture lies the enchanting 'Festa' season – a mesmerising series of religious feasts that pay homage to the island's rich heritage. Witness locals adorned in exquisite attire, while majestic statues of saints grace the streets, surrounded by faithful devotees carrying fragrant candles and blossoming flowers.

Feast of St. Paul's Shipwreck

Malta's most renowned celebration, the Feast of St. Paul's Shipwreck in Valletta, takes place on February 10th. Crowds gather to witness a riveting reenactment of the apostle's dramatic shipwreck and miraculous survival, a spectacle that transcends time.

The 16th century St. Paul's Shipwreck Church itself stands as an awe-inspiring testament to history and artistry. Its opulent marble interiors are adorned with a magnificent d'Aleccio altarpiece, paintings by Giuseppe Calli, and the majestic statue of St. Paul, meticulously carved by the gifted Melchiorre Cafà. For those with a taste for the macabre, a more peculiar relic awaits – the purported right wrist-bone of the saint himself!

Feast of Santa Marija

The dazzling Feast of Santa Marija, the apex of Malta's festa season, unfolds in all its glory on the 15th of August, with festivities extending over a week. Highlights include magnificent firework displays that light up the night skies with vibrant hues and a traditional regatta that sees colourful boats race through the Grand Harbour.

This radiant extravaganza graces various towns across Malta, including the island of Gozo. Why not become a 'festa-hopper' and see which town has woven the most captivating tales of festivity and enchantment?

Festival Gastronomy!

The Maltese also take pride in their hearty and flavourful dishes, influenced by their Mediterranean location, and gastronomic delights are an important part of the festa celebrations.

Savour the irresistible aroma of pastizzi, savoury pastries brimming with creamy ricotta or delightful mushy peas. And don't miss the opportunity to sample fenek moqli, the beloved fried rabbit dish that is usually accompanied by a robust red wine or a chilled, crisp white wine produced in one of Malta's historic vineyards.

Chicken and Tater Tot Casserole

Ingredients:

- 4 tablespoons unsalted butter
- 2 carrots, cut into 1/2-inch thick rounds
- 2 stalks celery, cut into 1/4-inch half-moons
- 1 onion, chopped
- Kosher salt and freshly ground black pepper
- 1/4 cup all-purpose flour
- 2 cups chicken broth
- 1 cup whole milk
- 4 cups shredded cooked chicken
- 3 cups frozen potato tots, such as Tater Tots, thawed
- 1 teaspoon fresh thyme leaves

We're upgrading this comforting classic by giving it a whole new crispy topping, courtesy of that bag of potato tots in your freezer. Pulsing thawed tots in the food processor (along with a little thyme) turns them into the perfect, crunchy topping for this family-favorite dinner.

Directions:

- 1 Preheat the oven to 450 degrees F.
- 2 Melt the butter in a large heavy pot over medium-high heat until hot. Add the carrots, celery and onions and season with 1 teaspoon salt and 3/4 teaspoon pepper. Cook, stirring occasionally, until the vegetables are golden, about 12 minutes. Stir in the flour, and then whisk in the broth and milk and bring to a boil, whisking. Boil until slightly thickened, about 3 minutes. Stir in the chicken. Transfer to a 2-quart baking dish.
- 3 Pulse the tots in a food processor with the thyme until medium ground. Scatter over the top of the casserole and bake until the filling is bubbling and the topping is golden and crisp, 20 to 25 minutes. Let stand 10 minutes before serving.
